

ADDITIONAL
MIST MISTINGS

Mrs. Frank Brown of Yankton, S. D., a business visitor to this city yesterday.

Miss Hendershot of Eugene, Ore., the week-end guest of her sister, Mrs. W. L. Lidyard.

Miss Alva Wilson of Glendale, Cal., arrived Tuesday and Wednesday as the guest of Mrs. W. L. Lidyard.

More than 10,000 miles of macadam roads have been ordered built in Afghanistan since the ruler of that country became the owner of an automobile.

During the absence of Marshal Richard, M. F. Hazen lugged around the entire Mist force if he gave him any "nase."

Mrs. S. C. Morton and the Misses Deming and Ruby Hammarstrom motored to Portland Wednesday, where they spent the day visiting friends.

L. Wheeler, manager of the land department of the St. Helena Lumber Co., with headquarters in Portland, was a business visitor in this city Thursday.

Requests for sample copies of the Mist were received this week from New York, Minnesota, Oklahoma, Kansas and from different sections of Oregon. These requests are being cheerfully complied with.

During the week ending July 27, three accidents were reported to the state industrial accident commission. 335 accidents, and two of them were fatal.

They were Jerry Cochell of Baker, and George Nichols of Monroe, who killed in logging operations.

Arthur Connaher of Oconto, Wis., been engaged at the St. Helens Lumber Co. to run the lath mill. He is an expert in his line, as it is stated that he has increased the output 10,000 per day under his supervision.

Mrs. M. Rosenthal, Miss Ella Rosenthal and Helen Rieken will leave today for a several weeks' visit in California. They will go from Astoria by the steamer Great Northern. During their absence the store will be in charge of Mrs. Rieken of Rainier.

Mrs. F. A. George entertained at her Thursday evening, August 3, in honor of her husband's birthday. The table and rooms were beautifully decorated with red and white. Covers were laid for eight. Those present were Messrs. A. J. Deming, C. Sutherland, Eugene Blakesley, E. Rotger, Ed. Ballagh, Ed. Kettel, J. Van Orshoven and F. A. George.

F. T. Lidyard, who makes his headquarters at Red Bluff, Cal., was the guest of his brother, "Dick," a couple of days last week, and together with W. L. Lidyard, wife and son, Mrs. Lidyard and Miss June Krael, a daughter from Forest Grove, made a trip to the upper Columbia Highway.

Mrs. L. J. Van Orshoven entertained with a birthday party Monday evening, in honor of Miss Lottia Van Orshoven. The center piece was a beautiful creation of Shasta roses and California poppies, the cards being photos mounted on roses. After dinner three tables were set for cards. Mrs. E. Miller winning high honors.

About twenty-five of the young members of the Christian Endeavor society were entertained at the home of Mrs. M. E. Miller last Friday evening. Amusing games were played, and Ed. Monk winning first prize in bowling, and Miss Marie Dixon, second. Delicious refreshments were served.

The St. Helens Mist acknowledges receipt of an invitation from the Associated Newspapers of Coos county, together with a handsome press, to distinguish newspapermen from the common herd, to attend the Coos Bay Railroad Jubilee August 22. This jubilee is given in honor of the completion of through train service of the Willamette Pacific from the main line of the Southern Pacific at Eugene to Coos Bay.

M. E. Miller was in Portland Saturday and endeavored to secure seats for members of the republican party in this county at the speaking of Charles E. Hughes, but without success. It will be a free for all, and already some 25,000 applications have been made for reserved seats. The building will only seat about 1000, many will be turned away disappointed, unless arrangements can be made for a second address. However, Mr. Miller, as chairman of the Columbia county central committee, has been invited to a seat on the platform.

COLUMBIA BEACH
VERY POPULAR

During the past few days of warm weather Columbia beach has been well patronized afternoons and evenings by many grown-ups and children. The only thing lacking to make this beach more attractive is a good road, and when this road is built Columbia beach will be the scene of hundreds of St. Helens folks as well as outside visitors.

GOVERNMENT AUCTION OF SITES

Three townships have been laid out on the Colville reservation and will be sold by the government in parcels according to plans now prepared in the hands of the land office officials. These townships are situated at Omak, Nespelem and Astor, and the lots comprising them will be offered at auction sales to be conducted by Judge John McHaul, superintendent of the Colville reservation, opening at Omak on August 10, 11, 12; Nespelem, August 14, and Astor, August 17. There are between four and five hundred lots each in Nespelem and Omak, and not quite so many in Astor. The proposed towns have been laid out, streets named and lots and blocks properly numbered. It is expected that there will be spirited bidding on these townships by investors and persons seeking business locations.

WILL STOCK STREAMS WITH YOUNG TROUT

Deputy Game Warden Brown spent some time here Wednesday interviewing a number of our citizens in regard to stocking the streams of the country with young trout. Only those streams will be stocked where they will be protected and where the game laws have not been seriously violated. As soon as this knowledge has been ascertained the fish will be shipped here and taken to the places selected.

The stocking of streams will depend largely upon the action of those living along the various creeks, and whether they have been violating any of the game laws will be taken into consideration in the distribution. Where dogs have been running deer he warns owners that the dogs are liable to be killed, besides prosecuting the owners when they can be found.

He also stated that no fish will be placed in the Clatskanie river, for the reason that explosives have been used and the state cannot afford to take chances where the laws are so flagrantly violated.

PORTLAND MARKETS

Cattle receipts were very fair for the first of the week. Prices showed a further weakness all along the line. Cows ranged around the $4.50 to $5 mark for the best, and steers were $6.50 to $7.10 for the choicest grass stuff.

The hog market got started early and $9.75 was reached, both for top and bulk of offerings. The receipts were very light—the lightest of the season, and buyers were eager for all that arrived. All classes got in on the high spot from lights to heavies. No change in the sheep situation. Offerings were only moderate. Prices steady.

MARRIED

Mrs. Nellie F. Stead of Bachelor Flat and Jesse A. Bunt of St. Helens were united in marriage by Rev. Sandifur at the parsonage on Wednesday, August 2. Both the young people are members of the Artisan lodge. They will reside at Bachelor Flat. A big crowd of young people gave them a charivari Thursday night. A real good time was enjoyed.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our appreciation to those who were so kind to us in our sorrow on the loss of our husband, son and brother, and we extend our thanks for the beautiful flowers.

MRS. B. H. LEWIS.

PRICE OF FLOUR CLIMBS

Owing to the tremendous advance made in wheat prices this week, it is probable that the price of flour will be raised from 20 to 40 cents per barrel. It is understood that both the Puget Sound and Columbia river millers feel that an advance of 40 cents per barrel is justifiable on account of such an increase in the wheat prices, so, Mrs. Housewife, if you don't want to pay the additional price, order your flour from your groceryman right now.

PIONEER PASSES AWAY

Mrs. Christians Saline, who for some years has been living on Sauvie island, died Tuesday night in a Portland hospital. Mrs. Saline has been a resident of Columbia county since 1876 and was well known to the old timers of St. Helens. It is understood she owned much valuable property in the county, and although the estate has not yet been appraised it is supposed to be worth $100,000. It is not in excess of that amount. Mrs. Saline was a close personal friend of M. Saxon and his wife and recently visited them here.
